SEE WILL WEAR STRIPES.

Mrs. Fannie Carson, the beautiful young woman who was convicted of being an accomplice in the murder of her husband, and John L. Page, her lover, who was convicted on a similar charge, were removed yesterday from the jail here to the penitentiary at Columbia, where, unless executive clemency intervenes, they will spend the rest of their days in stripes, says a Spartanburg, S. C., telegram.

So far as these two parties are concerned, the curtain drops upon one of the bloodiest tragedies that ever disgraced the criminal annals of Spartanburg county, Green, who committed the murder and was sentenced to hang, remains closely confined in jail and seems to bear up surprisingly well. His case will be appealed to the Supreme Court, which will delay execution until October, 1896, when he will be re-sentenced, if the decision goes against him.

Page has grown very restless while in jail, and said he would be glad to be taken to the penitentiary. He still maintains his first story, and says he had no hand whatever in the murder of Ban Carson. Colonel Johnson, his attorney, says that Page never confessed the crime even to him, but maintained that the story he told at the coroner's inquest and in the courtroom was true. The friends of the prisoners were with them up to the time they left for Columbia, and did all in their power for their relief. Both appeared to muster up considerable fortitude, and did not appear to feel the degradation before them.

Mrs. Carson will probably be set at work sewing on convict clothing, while Page will be kept at work around the State house and public grounds, in Columbia. It is against the policy of Colonel Neal to hire out white convicts and he keeps the women as secluded as possible. Mrs. Carson may be put at work in the knitting mill, which is a light and cleanly task. She is in fine health, and apparently has a long life before her.

It is believed that when Green is executed, that he will divulge the story of the crime, for he will not want to die with a falsehood in his mouth. The friends of Page assert that if Green does confess, that it will be found that the story told by Page is true, and that he is innocent of direct complicity in the murder.

THE FASTEST WAR SHIP IN THE WORLD.—The pennant for extreme speed among gun-carrying ships, excluding the nominally armed torpedo-boats and their destroyers, must be transferred from our own Minneapolis to the Buenos Aires, a cruiser built on Tyne for the Argentine government by Armstrong, Mitchell & Co. The speed of the Buenos Aires has been produced, moreover, by two screws, instead of three, as in the Minneapolis. She is a sheathed steel-built boat 396 feet between perpendiculars, 424 feet over all, 47 feet 2 inches deep, 47 feet 2 inches broad, and displacing 4740 tons. Estimating her beam as 1, her length is 8.39. The Minneapolis' figures corresponding to this is 7.08, as she has a beam of 58 feet 2 inches, and a displacement of 7300 tons. The Buenos Aires carries 2 8-inch guns, 4 6-inch guns, 12 4 1/2-inch guns, and 24 smaller guns. Her conning tower is 6 inches thick, her protecting deck is 3 inches thick on the sides, except that it is 5 inches thick over the machinery. She has 5 torpedo tubes, and her bow is a ram. Her estimated horse power was 17,000. The highest speed attained on her six-mile run was 23.529, and for a six-hour trial the figure was 23.202. The air pressure during the trial never exceeded four-tenths of an inch, and occasionally the strokeholes were open. The boiler pressure was 155 pounds to the square inch, and the mean revolutions of only engines averaged 151 per minute. Only natural draft was used, and the indicated horse power was approximately 14,000. England again leads in this procession.—N. Y. Sun.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her with in two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5,000 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by L. Stabler & Co., druggists.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN ALEXANDRIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a deed of trust executed on the 17th day of August, 1892, and duly recorded in Liber P. No. 4, folio 82, of the County Clerk's Office of Alexandria county, Virginia, the undersigned, substituted trustee in said deed of trust will offer for sale at 2 o'clock p. m. on on the land, ALL THAT TRACT OF LAND situated, lying and being in the county of Alexandria, Virginia, and which is bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a stake four poles north thirty and a half degrees east from a stone planted on the west side of the Georgetown road; thence south eighty-two and a half degrees west twenty-four poles to a stake near a spring; thence north eighty-seven degrees west twenty poles to a stake and pile of stones; thence north forty-eight degrees west twelve and three-quarter poles to a stake and pile of stones; thence south eighty-four and a half degrees west sixty-nine poles to a stake north seven and three-fourths degrees west twenty seven and a half poles to a stake and pile of stones near a stone planted on the west side of the Georgetown road; thence south eighty-four and a half degrees east one hundred and seventy-nine poles to a stake on the west side of the Georgetown road; thence with said road south twenty eight and a half degrees west forty-nine poles to the center of a gate on the said road; thence south eighty-two and a half degrees west twenty-four and a half poles to the place of beginning and containing thirty-four acres, one rod and fifteen perches, and being the same land conveyed by William Ager and others to Monroe L. Fox by deed duly recorded in the County Clerk's Office of Alexandria county, Virginia.

This beautiful tract of land is situated about two and a half miles southwest of Washington city, on that magnificent range of hills just south of the historic Arlington estate, and is a prominent and imposing place for a grand suburban home for a person desiring to attend to business in the city and to reside a short distance in the country, or it would make a valuable and accessible subdivision, being about one-half mile from the Mount Vernon Electric Railway and about three-quarters of a mile from the steam railroad from Washington to Alexandria. It is situated high and healthy; is well drained, and is in a good and rapidly growing community, near churches and schools, and possesses all the first views around the National Capital. The whole city of Washington and the Potomac river for a space of eight miles in length, shows up in majestic and panoramic beauty from this most favorable location.

Terms of Sale.—Cash sufficient to pay off a bond $2,500 with interest thereon at six per cent. per annum from August 17th, 1894, and the cost of executing this trust; and as to the residue terms will be made known on the day of sale.

A. W. SINCLAIR,
Substituted Trustee, Manassas, Va.

For further information call on JAMES E. CLEMENTS, 1321 F street, n. w., Washington, D. C., who will show the property.
